

EMAIL THREAD SUBJECT: A SMALL REQUEST

Samir,

I hope this email finds you better than I have been lately. I know you're enjoying yourself with Project Lockjaw, but I am once again requesting more non-GOC trained guards to secure the interrogation area.

Goode keeps having us mess with the Hume field, and it's only a matter of time before the Anchors fail from all the stress he's been putting them under. I need to make sure we are safe when this inevitably comes to pass.

I am only requesting maybe three or four more. I appreciate your expeditious response.

Santos,

Thank you for writing to me.

You need to relax and trust Goode. There is only so much that thing could do even if it managed to get out. It's just a mangy dog that will stay in its corner out of respect for the Foundation even if it were freed.

So relax. You'll be fine.
