Jesus Christ. So the rumors are true. We are keeping things hidden from the Coalition. What could Graham possibly want with it, though? Is that why every first batch of interrogation question has something to do with the subject's "family members"?

I spoke with Sylvia earlier, and even she doesn't know to what end we're doing all this.

For a project that Goode says Graham has a special, personal interest in, I've never once seen Graham come down here and involve himself. What else could he possibly be doing?
